PUBLIC NOTICE

Display of IFS Practitioners' Licence(s) on Website

It has come to the attention of the International Financial Services Commission (the "Commission") that fraudulent copies of licences are being reproduced and circulated to the public/investors, causing financial losses and significant reputational damage to Belize as a well-regulated jurisdiction.

In an effort to combat the fraudulent reproduction of IFS Practitioners licences, effective immediately, a licensee may no longer visually display a copy of its licence(s) on its website. Failure to discontinue displaying a copy of its licence(s) on its website may lead to the Commission taking disciplinary action against the licensee.

All licensees are advised to take note.
